CHILDREN OF ALUMNI ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship Facts:

1. Scholarships will be awarded only to those who submit a formal application.

2. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic achievement for the previous year. All credits and grades must be earned at the University of Rhode Island. Credits and grades earned at other schools, even though part of a university recognized program, do not qualify. Scholarship applicants with the highest grade point average among the pool of applicants in each category will be awarded scholarships.

3. There will be six (6) $500 awards in total (two sophomores, two juniors, and two seniors).

4. The awards will be presented during the summer preceding the respective years.

5. Any son or daughter (dependent or not) of a University of Rhode Island alumnus (parent or legal guardian) is eligible if presently enrolled at the University of Rhode Island. *

6. The awarding of this scholarship may affect a student presently receiving financial aid.
